Writing

Our topic in September will be Intrepid Explorers. Write a story or poem about an explorer. You can create a character or you could be the explorer yourself! The character could be exploring a country you're visiting on holiday, a place that you would like to find out about or make up your own fictional land.

Remember to:

- Describe the setting and the character in detail
- Use powerful vocabulary (interesting adjectives, verbs and adverbs)
- Use figurative language (similes, metaphors and personification)
- Include a range of punctuation (capital letters, full stops, commas, ! ? " " () - ;)
- Include a variety of sentence structures and clauses (simple sentences, compound sentences, complex sentences)
- Use a variety of sentence openers (fronted adverbials)
- Be creative!
