

Next Week Reception are learning to...

Literacy

Book focus - The naughty bus. This is a story about a London red bus that gets into all sorts of mischief like making a mess in the house and playing with other toys. It has beautiful real life illustrations

You can help by....

- Talking to your child about the story.
- Ask your child to think about journeys and where they would like to travel.
- Take your child on a red bus and talk about what they can see.

Numeracy

We will be learning to use positional language.

You can help by...

- Encouraging your child to use words such as on top, under, behind, in front and next to.
- Playing musical chairs. When the music stops, Encourage your child to put the teddy on top of the chair? Under the chair? Behind the chair?

General

Next week is half term and school re-opens on 2nd November 2020.

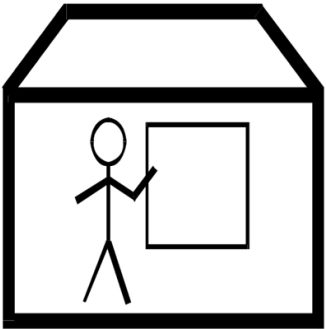

We have provided all children with a Google Classroom and London Grid for learning (LGFL) logins. Please attempt to login over the half term if you have not done so already. If you have any issues logging in please ask to talk to your class teacher.

- Please bring in any junk boxes you have around the house as we will be making our own red bus models when we come back after the half term.

Activities for the Half term:

- Encourage your child to draw a picture of a bus.
- Encourage your child to form the letters they have learnt to label it.
- Read a story at home. Talk about what happens in the story.
- Save and collect boxes for our junk modelling.
- Enjoy the half term!
