Where will they be sleeping?

- This year we are in tents
- Equipped with mattresses
- We will need to bring pillow, cover, sleeping bag
- Camping site enclosed within residential area
- Tents are strong and 'industrial'
- We have our own bathroom/shower area

What kit will they need?

Residential 2024 Kit List

- Torch
- Any medication required
- Sleeping bag/pillow/mattress cover/nightwear
- Towel and toiletries
- Underwear and suitable clothing for activities
- Plastic bag for dirty/wet clothes
- Sun cream
- Something to tie your hair back if it's long
- Joggers
- Leggings
- Shorts
- T-shirts (no vests)
- Sweatshirts/hoodies
- Closed toe footwear
- Spare trainers for water based activities
- Waterproof Jacket/trousers
- Hat

Some top tips:

Wherever possible, use old clothes that you don't mind getting wet, dirty and possibly damaged. Send extra underwear and socks, they may be wearing more than one per day (especially days where they have water-based activities).

Pack clothes for cold weather as this will be useful for evening activities.

Bring along some small activities (card games, travel board games, books)

Do not bring jeans or any expensive clothing

Do not bring valuables items or jewellery

Do not bring any money

Do not bring electronics (e.g. games consoles, phones, tablets, smart watches)

*No
Technology*

A top-down photograph of a white ceramic bowl filled with pink yogurt, topped with fresh strawberries, blueberries, and yellow granola. The bowl sits on a round wooden cutting board, which is placed on a light pink textured surface. A wooden spoon is visible behind the bowl. The image is partially cut off by a white, torn-edge graphic on the right side.

Morning of Departure

- Please ensure your child has a hearty breakfast before leaving
- You will need to provide a packed lunch for them to eat upon arrival at Danbury
- Please avoid nuts, fizzy drinks, excessive sweets and chocolate

Medication

- Please update us on medical needs
- Ensure medication is up to date; Asthma pumps, Epi-pens etc
- If your child suffers from travel sickness, hay fever etc please provide us with the appropriate medicine.
- All medication must be with us by Friday 14th June 2024 to be labelled for when we depart.
